Knox Views Force After War Ends

U. S. Must Provide Main Power, Leadership to Insure Peace of World

Hints at Action

Says U. S. Is Sweeping Raiders From Ocean Lanes

Indianapolis, Oct. 1 (AP)—Secretary of Navy Knox declared today that once the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo Axis has been defeated the United States and Great Britain must pool their forces "to stop new aggression . . . at its beginnings" in the post-war world.

The United States, said Knox, "must provide both the major power and the dominant leadership" for the task.

The navy chief outlined his views on the nation's future international role in a speech prepared for the 64th annual convention of the American Bar Association.

Repeatedly he emphasized American insistence on freedom of the seas—"It is for this we have fought two wars and now, for a third time, have declared we shall insist upon at whatever cost—come what may."

Should war come, he said, "far better a distant war, than one at home."

"If we must fight, and mark this well, there will not be for many years to come a time when we may not have to fight, then with modern weapons what they are, let us determine that we will fight elsewhere than on our own soil."

He dwelt on the advantages now accruing to the United States and Britain because of the combined control of the seas by their two fleets, and predicted: "Eventually we shall lock Nazi Germany up in an iron ring, and within that ring of seapower she shall perish."

Hints at Sea Action

Aprons of the American navy's operations, he reported:

"We are already sweeping the German pirates from the north Atlantic, and bringing to England the products of the arsenal we have set up here."

The statement aroused conjecture whether the secretary had positive evidence that the navy's new shoot-on-sight policy was clearing raiders out of the Atlantic. There has been no announcement on the subject since the Atlantic fleet's orders became effective September 16, although Knox promised then that "we'll tell the world" if any encounters occurred.

There was food for speculation, too, in the mention Knox made of Japan when he talked of ultimate Axis defeat. In recent months President Roosevelt and any other key administration officials have omitted references to Tokyo in denouncing the Axis, and not long ago a series of conversations began between the two countries on outstanding differences. But the secretary had this to say:

"That Nazism will be defeated, I have no doubt."

"That we shall proceed from one measure to another measure until we have taken adequate steps to bring defeat to the legions of Hitler and his satellites in Italy and Japan, again I have no doubt."

In the course of the address, Knox indicated that the navy felt more bases were needed if hemispheric safety was to be protected in South America no less than in North America. The navy's southernmost base now is in British Guiana and the range of its operations below the bulge of Brazil accordingly is limited. No formal agreements have yet been reached for use of base facilities reached with other hemisphere below the equator in an emergency.

New Taxes Grab First Returns From American Public

Much Revenue Will Come in Slow Returns to Treasury; 1918 Tax Looks Small

Washington, Oct. 1 (AP)—The heaviest taxes in American history—double those of the World War era—took their first big handful of cash from the public's pocketbook today, and it was only the beginning.

The new excise levies which became effective at midnight gave consumers their initial—if incomplete—idea of what the recently passed defense revenue tax bill is going to mean in dollars and cents.

Although the treasury department is counting on the excise taxes for the pretty penny of $3,000,000 a day, they represent only a small part of the whole revenue program which is expected to raise about $13,000,000,000 a year.

Yet to come is the day of reckoning on the new income and excess profits taxes, already in effect and applying to 1941 returns. These levies are of the delayed-action variety, with the pay-off to Uncle Sam deferred until next March 15.

The new order of taxes contrasted with the supposedly burdensome levies of the World War era, which yielded only $6,694,000,000 in their banner year. However, the nation now has about 30 million more inhabitants to share the burden.

President May Ease Requests

Piece-Meal Changes May Be All Asked in Neutrality Act at Present

Debate Feared

Senator Says Hot Talk in Congress May Curb Production

Washington, Oct. 1 (AP)—Indications increased today that President Roosevelt may seek to minimize threatened congressional controversy over his foreign policy program by requesting only piecemeal revision of the neutrality act at this time.

Reliable sources said the President probably would ask only authority to arm American merchant ships and to send them to Canadian ports from which the law now bans them.

Several congressional leaders have advocated outright repeal of the act or—as suggested by Chairman Connally (D-Tex.) of the Senate foreign relations committee—modifications which would permit not only the arming of the ships but their entry into European belligerent ports to deliver war supplies.

The latter proposal might be expected to provoke lengthy, bitter debate and one administration senator, who asked that he not be quoted by name, said he had advised against it. He felt, he said, that a rising tide of support for the President had taken thus far to aid nations fighting Hitler might be retarded by a full dress controversy in Congress.

Five Dairy Groups Seek Blend Price For Milk Output

Three Agriculture Officials Say Price Rises Not Enough to Satisfy Production Cost

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 1 (AP)—Five major dairy farmer organizations, informed by three agricultural college deans milk price rises effective today will fail to cover production costs, will seek ways to obtain a blended payment which will meet their expenses.

The producer groups' representatives yesterday appointed a committee of five, from each organization, which retired industrialist Owen D. Young said will "explore methods by which costs can be promptly returned to the farmer."

Their action followed a conference, led by Young, of Deans Carl E. Ladd, Cornell University; S. W. Fletcher, Pennsylvania State College; and J. L. Hills, University of Vermont, with men from the dairy farmers union, Dairymen's League, Metropolitan Milk Producers Bargaining Agency, Eastern Producers Association and Associated Independents.

Also participating were E. N. Case of the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration and Dr. W. I. Myers, chairman of Cornell's agricultural economics department and former governor of the Farm Credit Administration, with faculty experts who have been collecting milk cost data several weeks.

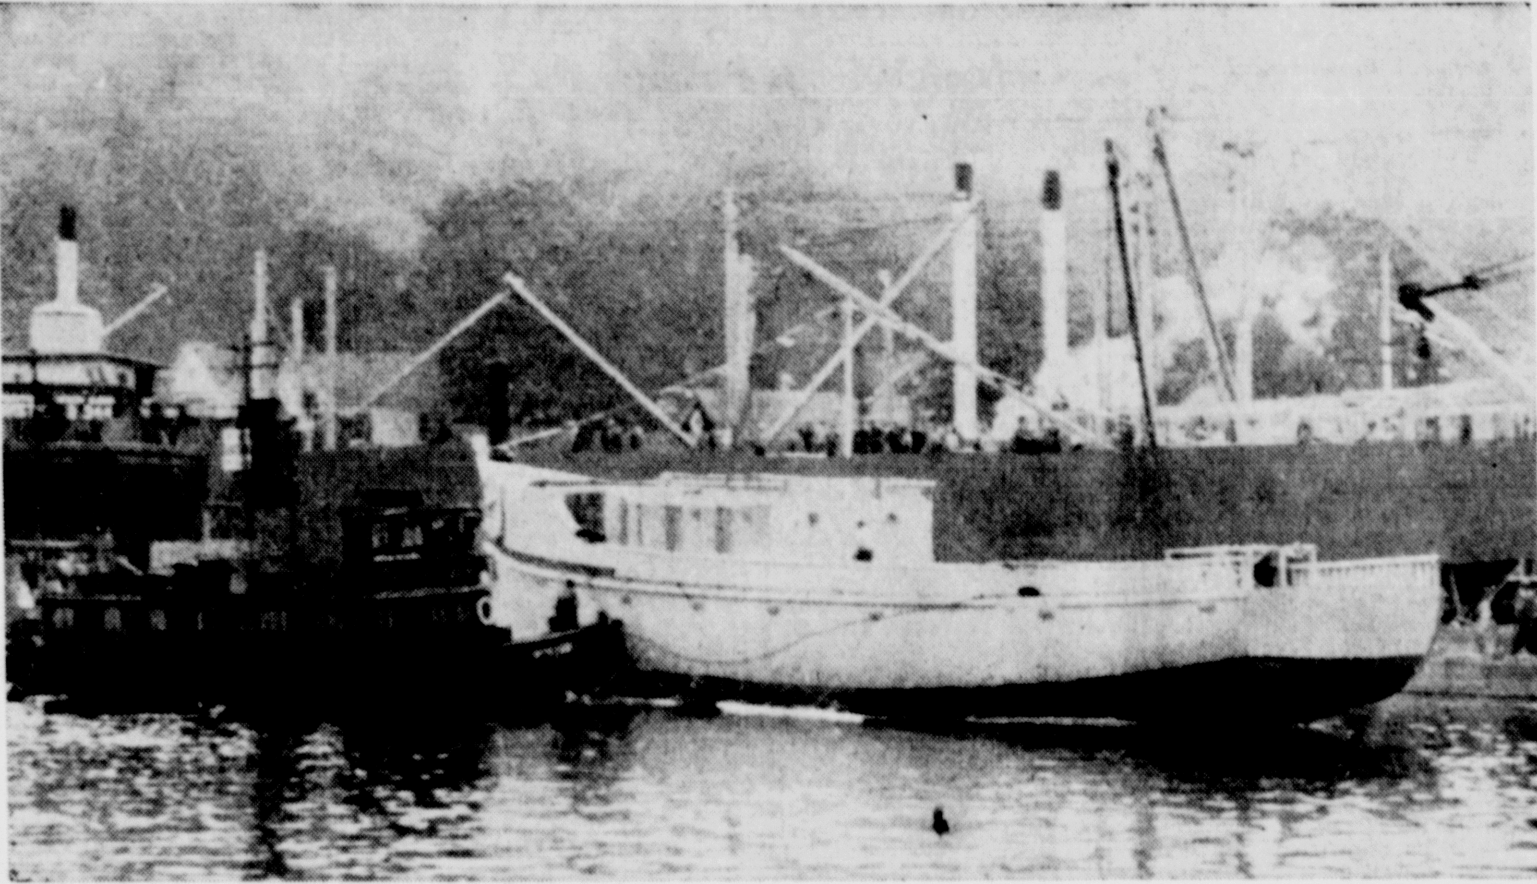

"Report Supports Farmers"

"Their report," said Young, who from his dairy farms at Van Hornville has supported dairymen's efforts to obtain higher returns, "was unanimous that the cost of producing a hundredweight of milk based on present prices of feed and on 35 cents per hour for labor be substantially in excess of three dollars for the coming months when cows are out of pasture."

"Inasmuch as the government estimate of the average price resulting from increases ranges between $2.70 and $2.80 per 100 pounds, it is apparent increases recently granted are inadequate to cover farmers' costs, as heretofore contended, and as the experts now find."

Discussing the labor factor, Young added "the experts had included only 35 cents per hour, which is about one-half the rate for industrial labor on the lowest (Continued on Page Three)

4,000 Residents Sign for Defense

Only About Half of City Wards Have Reported; Drive Continues

Approximately 4,000 cards have been filled out in Kingston in the registration for national defense, it was estimated today by Captain L. S. Miller of Abel street, who is in charge of the local drive, assisted by Richard C. Dawe, of Pearl street.

Captain Miller said that only about half of the wards in the city have reported as yet, and that the drive would continue until all of the wards had been heard from.

In all of the wards these questionnaires have been left at the homes where members of the family had not called at the polling places in the wards during the days of registration some weeks ago.

Convict Is Wanted

Conway, N. H., Oct. 1 (AP)—A former convict, wanted for questioning in the disappearance Sunday of five-year old Pamela Hollingworth, was taken into custody by Boston police today and denied knowing anything about the girl. The man was picked up in New Hampshire authorities were informed he had obtained a five-dollar loan there yesterday. High Sheriff James Welch of Carroll county said he was sending two policemen immediately to Boston to question the man.

Nielsen Rescues Man From Burning House in Eddyville

Truck Driver Hears Man's Shouts; Fire Caused by Exploding Oil Stove at Noon

Howard Bradford of Eddyville had a narrow escape from death shortly before noon today when an oil stove which he was lighting in his home on the Mountain Road at Eddyville exploded. Mr. Bradford has been in ill health for some time and was unable to leave the premises.

Presence of mind prompted him to shout for assistance and M. Nielsen, the driver of an Island Dock, Inc., truck which was passing, went to the aid of Mr. Bradford and carried him to safety.

The house located at the fork of the Fly Mountain road and the road leading down to the Rondout creek was completely destroyed. The premises which were occupied by Mr. Bradford, who lived alone, was owned by his son, Orrie Bradford of Oneonta.

Excelsior Hose Company of this city responded to an alarm but was unable to save the Bradford premises which were enveloped in flames when the firemen arrived. They, however, pumped water from a nearby cistern and extinguished flames which had already set fire to the Powell Myer property adjoining the Bradford house. Ralph H. Bradford, son of Howard Bradford, who conducts a store at Eddyville, said his father had been in ill health for some time and probably would have perished in the building had it not been for the prompt action of the driver of the passing truck. He attributed the cause of the fire to an exploding oil stove which the elderly man was lighting in the kitchen.

Aquarium Closes Its Doors

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Aquarium, mecca for 84,000,000 visitors in the past 39 years, has closed its doors. The 133-year-old Battery Park structure, built originally as a fort, will be torn down to make way for the Manhattan-Brooklyn automobile tunnel.

Thousands of the fish have been given to aquariums in Boston, Philadelphia and Washington and other thousands moved to the Bronx Zoological Park. The last of the salt-water fish will be dumped back into the Atlantic Ocean.

Cancer Mortality Shows 10 Per Cent Decrease Among Women

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 1 (AP)—A 10 per cent decrease in cancer mortality among women 25-44 years old in the 10 years through 1940 was reported today by the State Health Department.

Basing findings of a general downward trend of deaths from the disease on last year's federal census figures, the department said mortality among older women declined approximately three per cent.

An increase of mortality among males over 44 years old was reported, however, with no change in the death rate for those 25-44 years of age.

Million Bushels of Apples Are Harmed by Storm in Four Counties

Ithaca, N. Y., Oct. 1 (AP)—Damage to a million bushels of apples in western New York by a severe windstorm last week was reported today by agricultural agents of four counties.

A survey of fruit growers showed greatest damage in Niagara and Orleans counties where an estimated half of the unpicked apples was blown off.

Less severe losses were reported for Monroe and Wayne counties where growers said damage ranged from five to 25 per cent of the crop.

Ickes Says East Will Run Out Of Oil Products This Winter

Secretary of Interior Rejects Committee Findings That No Shortage Exists; Production Is Low, He Says

Washington, Oct. 1 (AP)—Petroleum Coordinator Ickes told a Senate committee today that if the existing trend of supply and demand for petroleum products on the east coast continued there would not be enough to go around during the coming winter.

The interior secretary rejected the committee's recent findings that no shortage existed and said it would be "unthinkable" to life restrictions on marketing, as the committee had proposed.

"Not enough oil is now moving to this coast to supply all of next winter's already-known needs," Ickes declared. "Not enough oil is now moving to this coast to supply, in addition, almost certain increases in these needs."

"Not enough stocks are available in storage tanks on the east coast to make up all of the difference between what we will need and what we will move in."

Ickes testified that total stocks on hand on the east coast had been running under the amount on hand last year by about 6,000,000 barrels while the demand for petroleum products had increased 10 per cent and transportation capacity had been substantially reduced.

Termining these "cold, hard facts," Ickes said they "could not be wished away, no matter how unwilling one may be to face the unpleasant truth."

Transportation, Ickes said, was not the only bottleneck confronted by his office.

Already, he declared, foreign and domestic orders for high-test aviation gasoline had outstripped production capacity in this country by three to one. He added that foreign demand for September for 100-octane gasoline was equal to the entire American production for that month.

"Obviously," he said, "we cannot begin to fill these orders for the nations fighting Hitler and still supply our own needs. And if we don't supply England and Russia, and others that are in our first line of defense, where will they get their 100-octane gasoline?"

Ickes said the committee's report had created among the public "a wholly unjustified attitude of complacency."

"When this committee assured the people that there was no shortage," he added, "either of petroleum or of transportation facilities, the situation changed rapidly for the worse. Gasoline stations, which formerly had held down their sales, blew off the lid. 'Gentlemen, I feel sure that you would have avoided such consequences if the facts of the oil situation had not been misrepresented to you by persons and organizations with motives that we do not bear scrutiny.'"

F. D. R. Says Russians' Provision On Religious Freedom Are Like U. S.

Washington, Oct. 1 (AP)—The Russian constitutional provision on religious freedom, President Roosevelt says, is essentially the same as that of the United States.

The Chief Executive told his press conference yesterday that Article 24 of the Soviet constitution provided for freedom of conscience and freedom of religion and propaganda against religion.

The difference between that and the rule in this country, Mr. Roosevelt continued, is that we don't put it that way—persons here are permitted to talk both for and against religion.

The President referred to the Russian constitution when asked about a letter, released by the day department, from Jan Ciechanowski, Polish ambassador. The letter said a Polish Catholic church and a Synagogue for Polish Jews were about to be opened in Moscow and "that the Polish communities in Russia have been allowed by the Soviet government to institute places of worship and have been given full freedom in this field."

Ciechanowski added that the Polish government was confident of being able "very shortly" to put into the war on the side of Russia a Polish army of 100,000.

The Yankees were first to appear for batting practice. Stanley Bordagaray, reserve outfielder, was first to take his batting licks against the practice pitching of Coach Schulte.

Milkmen Decide On Raise in Price

Dealers of City Region to Charge Additional Cent a Quart

Milk dealers serving Kingston and vicinity, to the number of 20 or more, met at the Farm Bureau office Tuesday night and decided upon a general rise of one cent a quart in milk delivered in the area. The section covered includes the city of Kingston, Saugerties, town of Esopus.

The new prices decided upon and which will go into effect October 6 are: Grade A milk, 15 cents a quart, 8 1/2 cents a pint; Guernsey milk, 17 cents a quart, 9 1/2 cents a pint.

There will be some advance also in the price of buttermilk and sour cream, but heavy cream and cottage cheese will remain the same. A general increase in the cost of materials used by milk distributors as well as increased cost of feed and supplies for producers, was given as the reason for the increase. One distributor stated this morning that there also would be an increase in the prices paid to producers.

In addition to the fact that prices on bottles, caps and the like have been increasing for some time past, dealers report difficulty in securing these supplies. One distributor said that a shipment of bottles ordered last June was received September 15. Bottle caps are higher and the aluminum caps cannot be procured at all.

Some grain is reported to have advanced 60 cents on 100 pounds, within a month or so. Affecting the delivered price of feed is the cost of bags and one potato dealer, who uses a great many, said that he was paying 13 cents each for used feed bags.

20 Townships File Petitions at Board Prior to Deadline

Town Councilman Proviso in State Law Is Met
by 9 Towns, Others
Defer Action

Prior to the deadline at midnight Tuesday designation petitions were filed with the Board of Elections for town candidates in each of the 20 towns of the county by the Republican and Democratic parties. Persons designated by these petitions may file declarations up until October 3 and all such vacancies caused by designations must be filled by October 7 under the election law.

In most of the towns of the county full town tickets were designated by both parties although the Democrats failed to name full tickets in several towns. In the towns of Gardiner, Hardenbergh, New Paltz, and Shawangunk the Republican candidates for supervisor will be unopposed since the Democrats failed to name candidates for the head of the town ticket. In the town of New Paltz the Democratic town ticket contains only two designations, that of collector and town councilman.

Nine of the towns of the county will elect a town councilman this fall and eight will not elect this year. In the town of Kingston, the smallest town in the county, there has been but one justice of the peace in the past because of the smallness of the town and Plattkill and Shawangunk have already adopted the town councilman plan. A town councilman takes part in the town meetings but has no duties such as are performed by a justice of the peace. Under the law in 1943 all towns must adopt the plan and have two justices of the peace instead of the usual four justices and there will be two town councilmen in each town board.

The town councilman provision of the law will be met this year in the towns of Esopus, Gardiner, Hurley, Lloyd, New Paltz, Rosendale, Saugerties, Ulster, and Wawarsing. In Denning, Hardenbergh, Marlborough, Marlborough, Olive Rochester, Shandaken, and Woodstock the plan is not being adopted this year and there will be no election of town councilmen.

Declination Is Filed

One declination has already been filed with the Board of Elections. Walter Sutton of the town of Marlborough has declined the Democratic designation for town collector. In the town of Kingston, Roxy Joy has requested withdrawal as school director although the official declination has not been filed with the Board yet.

In Lloyd, Richard V. Burton, Republican candidate for town collector, has also been named by the Democratic party.

The following lists of town officers which have heretofore not been published in The Freeman have been filed with the Board of Elections:

Lloyd, Republican: Supervisor, Jacob Donovan; town clerk, Lorin S. Callahan; collector, Richard Burton; town superintendent, Max Gruner; assessor, four years, Fred Babcock; assessor, two years, George DuBois and Theodore Maroldt; justice of peace, full term, Arthur R. Drouth Sets 50 Year Record in Northeast

Washington, Oct. 1 (AP)—A severe drouth persisted in most of the east today with some New England areas reporting water supplies lowest in 50 years.

By contrast, the weather bureau reported that some north central localities, hard hit by drouths in the past decade, showed the wettest season, so far, in more than 40 years.

The eastern drouth which has prevailed since early September was further aggravated last week "by an almost total absence of measurable precipitation from Virginia and the eastern Ohio valley northward."

Wells and streams have failed and the forest fire hazard increased.

Joseph W. Huty, assessor, four years, Clarence W. Peters, assessor, two years, William H. Wilber, justice of peace, full term, Wallace Shultz; justice of peace, full term, John Sickle; school director, Nollie V. Van Wagener.

Hitler's Course May Be Seen Soon In Bloody Ukraine

Russians Have Upset His Time Schedule and Truth of His Claims
Will Be Apparent

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(Freeman Special News Service)

British Premier Churchill has the habit of hunching up his expansive shoulders, sticking out his jaw and stating harsh facts bluntly, and in his report on the war situation to his people yesterday he emphasized that Hitler still holds the initiative in every arm excepting the air.

Indeed, added the prime minister, should the Nazi decide to stand on the defensive in the Russian theatre he would have sufficient striking power to launch great attacks simultaneously against England, Africa, Egypt and Spain. Such a development is possible, though nobody knows what the fuhrer may do.

As a matter of fact, it's quite likely that Herr Hitler hasn't yet decided on his course. The Reds have rather upset his mastery over his own destiny, and in my mind his campaign plans are being sketched right now in the mud of the rolling fields in the Ukraine. Events of the immediate future in that bloody cock-pit probably will govern his decision.

Up to far he has been driving with all his strength on this southern sector with the apparent purpose of trying to complete his invasion of the Ukraine, and then turn southward into the Caucasus toward Iran (Persia) before the arrival of winter. The fierce Bolshevik resistance has wholly upset his time schedule. It may even have stymied him, and that is precisely what he is in process of finding out at this moment.

The Nazi high command claims to have forced the Russians to the point of collapse in the Ukraine. Whether that is true remains to be seen but if it is true it will become apparent before many days.

There can be no doubt that the Reds are very hard pressed in the Ukraine. Churchill yesterday voiced concern over the lack of resources, and certainly want of equipment, especially tanks and airplanes, has accounted for many of the Soviet reverses.

The German high command today announced successful continuation of the Nazi offensive east of Smolensk. Simultaneously Moscow admitted the loss of the ancient city of Poltava on the river Vorskla, 180 miles southeast of Kiev, Ukrainian capital.

The significance of the Nazi capture of Poltava is that it was one of the defensive positions which Marshal Budenny had been trying to hold to keep the invaders from breaking through into the Donets Basin. It tends to confirm the German claim of continued success.

Should the way suddenly open up for the Nazis to finish their sweep across the Ukraine and swing into the Caucasus, Hitler might be expected to exploit this great gain.

However, if Hitler already has flung into this bloody and other wise costly battle his maximum effort, and still finds the Red resistance strong, he may decide to cut his losses for the present and "dig in" for the winter on a defensive line. That would release troops and equipment for more profitable attacks elsewhere, pending the coming of the spring.

One thing one would expect him to do would be to resume a heavy bombing of England and shipping, in an effort to destroy the supplies and industrial production which are building up John Bull's strength steadily.

It's quite on the cards, too, that the submarine campaign will be intensified.

Both the Axis and the British have been getting set for action in North Africa, and it wouldn't be surprising to see hostilities intensified in Libya again in the near future. Should this happen, the Germans undoubtedly will unleash a heavy air offensive in the Eastern Mediterranean from their new bases in Greece and Crete.

Invasion of England? It always is possible, of course, but it would be a terrific risk to take at this time of year, when the channel becomes a cauldron boiling with trouble. We mustn't forget that an invasion not only involves the initial crossing and landing of troops, but also the keeping open of communications for supplies and reinforcements.

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—Buying activities in today's stock market centered on selected industrial and communications issues and the majority of the leaders got nowhere.

Best action was provided by some of the farm implement, chemical groups but top gains of fractions around 2 points were shaded in the final hour. Transfers were at the rate of around 400,000 shares. Commodities yielded a part of yesterday's advances, which marked heaviness in world sugar, although cotton futures were comparatively steady.

Climbing power exhibited by Western Union and Postal Telegraph revived old rumors that some progress might be looked for in the tentative plan for their consolidation. Dow Chemical had a good rise, restoring some of the sharp losses recorded last week.

Other favored issues included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, Woolworth, Allied Chemical, American Can and Phillips Petroleum. Shy on rising spirit were Anaconda, Eastman, Harvester, General Motors, and Consolidated Edison.

agency, or for the improvement of those bases in the meanwhile. Knox cautioned against "any Maginot line complex . . . error of defensive thinking," particularly with regard to the sea-borne defenses of the United States.

"The best defense has always been a swift offense," he said, "and a navy is inherently an instrument for offensive action because of its mobility."

Discussing the Anglo-American policing of the world he foresaw for the future, Knox declared: "You may say: What business is it of ours to police the seven seas? Why should we provide leadership and the major force to insure against another world war?"

"My answer is history-made. Twice we have learned from bitter experience that no matter how great our reluctance to participate, the world has now grown so small, so interrelated, so interdependent, that try as we will, we cannot escape."

"This does not mean we must fight every war there is a disturbance in the world, but it does mean that the great law-abiding peace-loving nations must take the power into their hands and keep it there for a long time to come to prevent the inauguration of another world war."

"We will not indulge in any idle dreams of a millenium. We are not going to stop all wars. But I am convinced we, for our own safety and protection, and for the maintenance of our way of life, shall have to provide an interregnum in which we shall not only devote ourselves to the pursuit of peaceful aims, but provide the essential might to enforce such a peace on those who are not willing voluntarily to pursue such a course."

Knox made it clear that he believed sea power would be the major law-enforcement agency for such a policy. "It is the hope of the world," he said, "that sea power for the next hundred years, at least, will reside in the hands of the two great nations which now possess that power—the United States and Great Britain."

throwers, 700 machine-guns, 117 armored cars and 200 field guns. Berlin said German artillery shelled important industrial facilities in Leningrad "with good effect," while the Nazi high command reported the destruction of 45 out of 80 Soviet tanks in a clash with a German armored division.

Leningrad Is in Danger

A Russian spokesman acknowledged that Leningrad was still in grave danger, but declared that the German failure to capture the old Czarist capital after long weeks of assault constituted "one of the greatest defeats of Hitler's war strategy."

Germany's Finnish allies, driving down on Leningrad from the north, reported the capture of Petrozavodsk on the Leningrad-Murmansk railway. The city is 180 miles airline northeast of Leningrad.

In the war in the air, German bombers smashed anew at the British Isles during the night, attacking five cities within a few hours after Prime Minister Winston Churchill had told parliament that the Reich was suffering "a very serious shortage" in planes.

Nazi pilots said 13 fires were left raging in Newcastle, English east coast shipbuilding center, and that heavy attacks also fell upon Ramsgate, Aberdeen, Hull and various airports. The British reported "considerable damage" and some casualties.

The Germans said large numbers of R. A. F. bombers raided German coastal cities overnight, killing and wounding an unspecified number of civilians, and reported that an aerial thrust against Berlin was frustrated.

R. A. F. Planes Are Busy

London said R. A. F. bombers smashed at the German ports of Hamburg and Steftin and the docks of Nazi-occupied Cherbourg during the night, and that strong formations of fighters and bombers roared over the Channel toward Dunkerque and Calais in renewed daylight attacks.

A British broadcast quoted a secret Czech radio as having urgently called for a general strike "as a protest against the Nazi occupation."

In Berlin, it was announced that German retaliation for Czech attempts to overthrow Nazi rule had cost 88 lives in three days, with 58 shot yesterday.

Reports of Sofia, Bulgaria, said 543 persons had been arrested at the Black Sea port of Varna in a house-to-house round-up—apparently in quest of Soviet agents. It was said to have landed by parachute in Bulgaria recently.

Both the Axis and Britain were girding for action in the middle east but there was no indication either side was about to loose a general offensive immediately.

War materials from the United States were being unloaded in Egypt in such quantities that the docks were crowded. These supplies finally will go to the western desert of Egypt, where the British now have greater strength than ever, and to the northern defense line on the Turkish frontier, Cairo reports said.

In Rome, the newspaper Il Popolo Di Roma said the Italians were ready for a new British offensive on the north African front, having sent to Africa men, material, tanks and planes to "face any eventuality."

dorsement today of Rep. Fish (R.-N.Y.), usually an opponent of President Roosevelt's foreign policy. "I see no objection to arming our ships so that they can protect themselves," Fish said. "I regard that as a defensive measure. Neither am I opposed to conveying supplies as far as Iceland."

Reiterates Intention

Fish reiterated his intention to introduce a resolution calling for the United States to declare war on Germany in order "that

Colorful Parade, Dinner, Ceremony For Admiral Byrd

Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd, noted explorer of the Antarctic regions, will arrive for his afternoon and evening lectures in this city shortly after noon Friday, it was announced today. A colorful parade and impressive ceremonies will mark his visit to Kingston.

Arriving here on the Rhinecliff Ferry, he will be escorted to the Governor Clinton Hotel by officials of the Kingston Lions Club under whose auspices he is scheduled to appear.

At a luncheon in honor of the renowned explorer, two Kingston women, Mrs. William H. Rieser and Mrs. Lucy Wheeler, will be guests. Mrs. Rieser knew the admiral when he was a youth in Boston, Mass., where she was a noted singer. Mrs. Wheeler is the mother of Sergeant Felix Ferrante, who was a radio operator on a recent Byrd expedition.

Following the luncheon, which is scheduled to end at 2:30 o'clock, Admiral Byrd will be escorted by an automobile cavalcade from the hotel along Clinton avenue to North Front street thence along Wall street to Maiden Lane continuing on to Broadway and to the city hall, where he will be greeted by Mayor C. J. Heiselman. Appropriate ceremonies fitting an admiral will be held on the steps of the city hall.

In the line of march will be members of the New York State Guard and also the Sea Scouts in full regalia, who will act as an official guard of honor during his stay in Kingston. The Sea Scouts are sponsored by the local Kiwanis club.

Local police authorities including members of the Kingston police force, county and state police will act as escort.

Admiral Byrd will be accompanied here by members of his expedition. Following his speaking engagement in this city the admiral will tour the country in the interest of national unity.

Expect Record Crowds
Following the reception at the city hall, Admiral Byrd will go to the Kingston Municipal Auditorium where he will deliver his lecture on his expedition to the Antarctic. Over 2,000 school children are expected to be present. The Lions Club has distributed tickets throughout the schools and a record attendance is anticipated.

were $2,000 for a family head and $1,000 for a single person. The new figures are $1,500 and $750. However, in 1918 dependents were $200 credits and now are $400 apiece. The tax rates in both cases range up to 77 per cent, but the new law sets heavier levies in the lower and medium brackets than the 1918 statute.

The corporation income tax in 1918 was 6 per cent, and now is 21 to 31 per cent.

The excess profits tax on corporations has been upped from a range of 8 to 60 per cent to a bracket of 35 to 60 per cent.

Estates were taxed then at 2 to 25 per cent and now are 3 to 77 per cent.

Liquor that was nicked $2.20 a gallon when the country sang "Over There" now contributes $4. The beer tax has jumped from $3 to $6 a barrel.

Changing times have altered many of the methods and sources of taxation. Now important revenue comes from radios, mechanical refrigerators, electrical appliances. These things either didn't exist or were not rated consumer luxuries in those days.

On the other hand, the new tax act doesn't have taxes, as they did in 1918, on soft drinks, player pianos, silk shirts and other expensive clothing, candy, patent medicine, and riding academies.

level. On present prices, farm labor will not receive more than 20 cents an hour.

"I cannot believe," he said, "that if milk consumers, comprised largely of American laborers, once understand these facts, there will be further resistance to an increase in farmers' prices."

"I cannot believe, either, that the federal government will ask for increased milk production at less than a fair cost to the farmers. The government is not asking that of anyone else."

"The secretary of agriculture (Claude Wickard), who is the guardian of farmers' interests in the federal government, will, I am sure, not appeal to the well-known patriotism of the farmer without making adequate provision to protect him from loss."

The new price schedule in the six states supplying New York's rich metropolitan market, grants $3.11 a hundredweight (47 quarts) for class 1 fluid milk, a rise of 23 cents.

Scheffels Are Convalescing

Mrs. Frank A. Scheffel and daughter, Dolores, of 192 Downs street, were reported in comfortable condition this morning at the Kingston Hospital where they are both under treatment after being badly overcome by carbon monoxide gas at their home on Tuesday noon by Doris, twin sister of Dolores, on returning home at noon for lunch from school.

A poor native in South Africa walked 30 miles to contribute $4 to a war fund.

tributed tickets throughout the schools and a record attendance is anticipated.

The lecture will be supplemented with 9,000 feet of motion film showing the experiences of the members of the Byrd expedition in the Antarctic. Admiral Byrd will be the narrator.

The lecture and showing of the motion picture films will be repeated by Admiral Byrd in the evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Kingston Municipal Auditorium. The Lions Club is looking for a capacity crowd for the evening performance, as the ticket sale has been large. Those who have not already purchased tickets may do so at the door on Friday evening.

Local Merchants To Hold Meeting

Christmas Lighting and Other Topics Scheduled for Discussion

In order to get under way in time to arrange a program of Christmas lighting for the uptown section of Kingston, President James L. Rowe of the Uptown Kingston Business Men's Association will bring that important topic up for discussion at the October meeting of the Association which will be held Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Farm Bureau Assembly rooms on John street.

Last year the matter of Christmas lighting for the uptown business section of Kingston was delayed until too late to carry out a proposed plan and President Rowe intends this year to bring the matter before the membership in plenty of time to arrange a plan.

"Anticipation Sales Days" which are being featured throughout the country also will be discussed. A topic which has been gaining in importance for several months is the Saturday evening closing of stores. Newburgh, Poughkeepsie and Wappingers Falls have become interested in a Saturday evening closing plan and are seeking the cooperation of Kingston. A large membership is desired at the meeting Thursday morning to discuss this matter.

Tunnel Worker Awarded $6,000 in Compensation

John Hogan, tunnel worker with the Dravo Corp., who it is claimed has sustained permanent disabilities following an explosion in the tunnel in which he was working in 1938, was awarded a settlement of $6,000 in Referee F. A. Hoyt's compensation court this morning. His attorneys, Kooperman & Kooperman, were allowed a fee of $500. Hogan was burned at the time of the explosion, but his most serious trouble is due to the fact that an arrested asthmatic affliction became active and according to testimony produced by his attorneys the condition induced in all probability will remain permanent.

Lions Club Hears Talk by Laidlaw

Modern Education Trends Outlined by Speaker

Superintendent of Schools Arthur J. Laidlaw addressed the members of the Lions Club at their regular weekly meeting held at the Governor Clinton Hotel in this city Tuesday with 24 of its members present. Mr. Laidlaw was introduced by Program Chairman Walter Donnaruma as a "dynamic" person and one who was doing a fine job with the schools in the city of Kingston.

Mr. Laidlaw spoke of the schools of this country as being first in importance in building the lives and characters of 30 million Americans, there being more children in the schools in America than in the rest of the world added together also the fact that there are more pupils in the high schools of New York state than in all England.

There are 2,250 pupils in the Kingston High School today which is 3½ times as many as in 1924. He spoke of the schools being faced with a problem of finding out for what a student is best suited. Mr. Laidlaw displayed nine charts representing the National Intelligence Test of some 3,200 children and which required 60,000 operations to compile. There are plans underway for special classes in handicraft, etc., for those pupils with low intelligence quotient. Superintendent Laidlaw's talk proved so interesting that President M. Reina invited him to return soon again. Among the honored guests were Mayor Conrad J. Heissman of Kingston and Atwood Lawrence, special representative of Lions International.

The committee on "Admiral Byrd Lecture" will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. to report on ticket sales and final arrangements for the reception of the admiral Friday when he arrives in Kingston for his lecture at the municipal auditorium.

Both cars were somewhat damaged. The cars collided shortly before 9 o'clock Tuesday night at the intersection of Grand street and Smith avenue.

Two Drivers Arrested

Two motorists were arrested Tuesday by the police on charges of traffic violations. Both furnished bail for their appearance later in police court. Robert Stastny of R.F.D. 3, Kingston, was charged with failing to observe a full-stop sign, while Philip Tramantano of New York, was charged with operating a car without having either an operator's or chauffeur's license.

Drive Opens Tonight On Anniversary

The 25th anniversary of the opening of the first Maternal Health Center in the United States will be celebrated locally by the Ulster County Committee for Planned Parenthood tonight at the Nurses Home of the Kingston Hospital when the committee opens the annual drive by bringing Mrs. Margaret Sanger, nationally known figure, to speak there. It was 25 years ago this month that this same Mrs. Sanger established the first clinic in Brooklyn. In 1912, as a courageous public health nurse who saw the need for this service among the underprivileged, she began her campaign to establish it. In 1914 she went to Europe to study the work there, coming home the next year to begin her fight. In 1937 she received the annual Town Hall Award of Honor for the most conspicuous contribution to the "enlargement and enrichment of life."

Today she is the honorary chairman of the National Association of Planned Parenthood which has branches in 28 states. There are now 566 centers in the United States functioning under medical direction. Not only has she watched a rapid growth in number, but more gratifying a widespread acceptance of the work as a public health measure.

Kingston has one of the 80 centers operating in New York state. It is for the furtherance of its excellent work that the local committee is asking the citizens of the community to lend its financial support of this campaign being launched tonight.

Removing Service Plate Is Simple And Quicker

According to correct (formal) service, the service plate is removed with either fruit-cocktail glass, or soup plate, and exchanged for a clean plate known as an "exchange plate," because this in turn should be exchanged for any plate with food on it. But since a kitchen served meat and vegetables is not admitted at a formally-served dinner, an exchange plate would seem strangely out of place. Therefore, the answer is to do what is most expedient. This probably would be to remove service plates and whatever may be on them, (one double stack in each hand,) and bring in the filled ones (one in each hand).

This answer is to the question: "When the main course of a meal is served on plates in the kitchen and brought in by the maid (which is often done these days in this part of the country) should the service plate be removed at the time that the fruit cocktail or soup is removed, or should the place plates be left standing and only the first course removed, and the place plates be lifted as each hot plate with the main course is put down?"

As I already have said, it would seem simpler as well as quicker to remove service plate and whatever is on it and leave the place bare until the already filled, hot plates are put down. This is a "practical" service suggestion, in contrast to that which is "formally correct."

The Office Telephone Rings
Dear Mrs. Post: When answering a doctor's telephone, should I say, "This is Dr. Franklyn's office?" or "This is Miss Jones in Dr. Franklyn's office?"

Answer: The usual form is briefly: "Dr. Franklyn's office." If asked who is speaking you would say, "Miss Jones." Or possibly explain, "Miss Jones, Dr. Franklyn's nurse."

Reception at Eight
Dear Mrs. Post: I am in invitation to an eight o'clock wedding reception, which is following the ceremony, mean that dinner will be served?

Answer: It would depend upon the hour which is customarily that of the evening meal. If most people in the community dine at 8 o'clock, then it would certainly mean that the reception would be an evening meal. But if people take supper at 6 or half past, then it would not mean an evening meal. Unless the invitation specified "dinner" or "supper after the ceremony."

Halloween Party Games For Gay Sophisticates

Investigators are mystified by the queer lights that appear at long intervals on the plain, north of Brewarrina, New South Wales. Known locally as "Hobson's lights," after the man who first reported seeing them, they shine brilliantly, move swiftly from place to place, and appear and disappear irregularly. A recent observer told of seeing what he thought was a campfire. Suddenly it raced toward him, stopping 10 yards away. It dazzled him with its brilliance and vanished. The scene is that of the Hospital Creek massacre, where hundreds of blacks were killed by the early settlers. To tell some of the aborigines there that this fact has no significance is merely to waste breath.

Do's
Do purchase upholstered furniture covered with materials that harmonize with the frame. For example: if you buy Colonial furniture, it should be covered with material, such as homespun. It should not be upholstered in "dressy" fabrics like damask.

Wall Console
Traditional simplicity marks this graceful yet sturdy Royal Sherraton wall console table, made in genuine mahogany, with brass feet. The top may be lowered and swung around to reveal a hiding place for cards and tallies and make a 29-29 inch surface for games and other purposes.

Couple Banished To Dark Cellar
Halloween's coming up! You want to be ready with clever and spooky new games to guarantee your party the best in town! Our favorite is a Halloween version of "Consequences," played in couples, with a ghost as master of ceremonies! It's hilarious and does a sly job of pairing off bashful guests.

The spectre, in a hollow tone, asks such questions as "Who was the witch of Endor?" If the questioned pair fail to guess, the ghost inflicts some dread penalty like "Bring back a witch's broom from the dark cellar!" (Any broom there will do!) Or he can order them "to get a black cat!" "Stop the next car with a Jack-O'-Lantern!"

Then an uproariously wild and funny game is "Safety Spots." After each "round" of music everyone races to touch a "spot," or paper pumpkin, on the wall—players. Round by round players drop out until two speed-demons rush madly for the spot. The winner gets a pumpkin pie!

Then surely you'll want to tell fortunes... "Pumpkin Prophecies!" Our 32-page booklet shows how, gives directions for gay ice-breakers, dozens of memory, action and fortune-telling games for all kinds of parties.

Send 10 cents in coin for your copy of "Party Games For All Occasions" to The Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Service, 635 Sixth Ave., New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Antie Lights Mystified
Investigators are mystified by the queer lights that appear at long intervals on the plain, north of Brewarrina, New South Wales. Known locally as "Hobson's lights," after the man who first reported seeing them, they shine brilliantly, move swiftly from place to place, and appear and disappear irregularly. A recent observer told of seeing what he thought was a campfire. Suddenly it raced toward him, stopping 10 yards away. It dazzled him with its brilliance and vanished. The scene is that of the Hospital Creek massacre, where hundreds of blacks were killed by the early settlers. To tell some of the aborigines there that this fact has no significance is merely to waste breath.

Do's
Do purchase upholstered furniture covered with materials that harmonize with the frame. For example: if you buy Colonial furniture, it should be covered with material, such as homespun. It should not be upholstered in "dressy" fabrics like damask.

Wall Console
Traditional simplicity marks this graceful yet sturdy Royal Sherraton wall console table, made in genuine mahogany, with brass feet. The top may be lowered and swung around to reveal a hiding place for cards and tallies and make a 29-29 inch surface for games and other purposes.

Couple Banished To Dark Cellar
Halloween's coming up! You want to be ready with clever and spooky new games to guarantee your party the best in town! Our favorite is a Halloween version of "Consequences," played in couples, with a ghost as master of ceremonies! It's hilarious and does a sly job of pairing off bashful guests.

The spectre, in a hollow tone, asks such questions as "Who was the witch of Endor?" If the questioned pair fail to guess, the ghost inflicts some dread penalty like "Bring back a witch's broom from the dark cellar!" (Any broom there will do!) Or he can order them "to get a black cat!" "Stop the next car with a Jack-O'-Lantern!"

Then an uproariously wild and funny game is "Safety Spots." After each "round" of music everyone races to touch a "spot," or paper pumpkin, on the wall—players. Round by round players drop out until two speed-demons rush madly for the spot. The winner gets a pumpkin pie!

Then surely you'll want to tell fortunes... "Pumpkin Prophecies!" Our 32-page booklet shows how, gives directions for gay ice-breakers, dozens of memory, action and fortune-telling games for all kinds of parties.

Send 10 cents in coin for your copy of "Party Games For All Occasions" to The Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Service, 635 Sixth Ave., New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your name, address, and the name of booklet.

Club to Meet
Colonial City Stamp Club will meet at its club room in the Governor Clinton Hotel Friday evening, October 3, at 8 o'clock. Harry Streifer will be the speaker.

Freshmen Visit Sororities

Freshmen girls and special students will be given an opportunity to visit the various sorority houses this evening. The schedule for open house has been arranged according to division and the girls are asked to follow these arrangements in order to avoid confusion.

Opening Assembly

Dr. Lawrence H. Van den Berg, principal of the New Paltz Normal School, officiated at the opening convocation for the school assembly program.

Dr. Van den Berg asserted that everything possible is being done in reaching the goal of the school—the awarding of a degree. The Board of Regents, which has the power to authorize the granting of degrees, has two main objections. The first objection is the claim that the libraries in normal schools are not wide enough in scope compared to the liberal arts colleges. The second claim is that the schools are not thoroughly equipped with biological laboratories.

In its petition to the Board of Regents to authorize the granting of degrees, the board of visitors of the nine normal schools of New York state sent a copy of the set of resolutions drawn up at the meeting in Rochester to each member of the Board of Regents.

The resolution points out that the normal schools are under a severe handicap in their effort to attract the best student material in that they cannot assume them a degree at the end of a four-year curriculum which was established by the Board of Regents itself. Furthermore, the graduates of such a four-year program, equivalent to graduation from college, are at a disadvantage for positions as graduates with degrees from other states invade the field.

It was also brought to the attention of the Board of Regents that the State Teachers College at Buffalo, which is operating on the same curriculum, has been granting degrees for several years.

This set of resolutions also points out that the professional preparation of the faculties of the normal schools has been greatly improved and contend that library and laboratory facilities either equal or surpass the minimum standards established for collegiate status.

Students Enroll

Students entering New Paltz Normal School and students returning to the Normal School registered last Tuesday, September 16. On this day all students received their program of studies for the coming semester.

Freshman Week

In order to help the freshmen become acquainted with the faculty, the upper classmen and the school in general, the school sponsors a "Freshman Week." All the upper classes and the faculty helped to make this "Freshman Week" a success. George Maybury, a sophomore of the Normal School, was chairman of the committee for "Freshman Week."

The program was started on Tuesday evening when the various sororities and independent groups of the school sponsored a freshman carnival for the girls. Entertainment, refreshments, dancing and other activities were all included in this evening of fun. At the same time in a different gymnasium the Inter-Fraternity Council sponsored a men's smoker just for the freshmen boys. Both these affairs proved successful socially and also helped entering freshmen get acquainted with some older classmates.

On Thursday evening the New Paltz Normal Faculty entertained all the students with a picnic. The picnic was held at Harp's Heights immediately after school. Both the faculty and students roasted their "hot dogs" and marshmallows over outdoor fires.

which had been previously started by the faculty. After the picnic, students formed a semi-circle about a huge bonfire and sang various songs under the direction of Howard Hoffman, head of the music department.

On Friday evening the sophomore class sponsored a "Freshman Frolic." This affair consisted of an evening full of games and dancing. The entire school was invited to attend and all agreed that the affair was a great success.

Saturday was the climax of "Freshman Week" activities when all upper classmen and freshmen took the annual trip to Mohonk. Buses transported the students to and from Mohonk, where the day was spent in hiking and in enjoying the scenery.

This trip concluded the activities for freshman week. The freshmen are better acquainted with the upper classmen and the ways of the school and are now ready to start their studies for the coming semester.

Freshmen entering New Paltz from Kingston and vicinity are: Margaret Ambrose, Thomas Cully, Myrtle Dabney, Margaret Fee-ney, Regina Camp, Alice Fenton, Phyllis Fitzgerald, Helen Geary, Margaret LaTour, Jane Lynch, Nancy Molyneux, Ann Netter, Adele Schwartz, Ida Sonnenberg and Bernice Weaver.

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 30 (P)—Dr. Francis E. Fronczak, city health commissioner, recommends more and shorter vacations for businessmen. Three days a month away from business is more restful than one long vacation, he said, adding that everyone should lie abed one morning each week.

Flashes of Life Sketched in Brief

(By The Associated Press)

Ticket Speculation
Philadelphia—Penn coeds are up in arms over the football ticket situation but they aren't getting any help from the university's callous males.

They protested against men students being allowed to buy cut-rate tickets a week before them but the university's Daily Pennsylvanian dismissed the matter with the comment:

"The girls will have a terrific time attempting to convince a lot of skeptical guys that a game started for men, played by men and numbering men among its most avid supporters is passing under the control of women."

Traveling Library
Davidson, N. C.—The problem of moving 60,000 books from the old to the new library at Davidson College didn't worry anybody.

The 700 students were given a holiday, told to form a line resembling an old-fashioned fire brigade and pass the books from hand to hand.

Blonde Trouble
Salt Lake City—Nelda Ann Holmes, an unclad blonde of two years, locked herself in the bathroom.

Offers of lollipops, cookies, chewing gum, and a new doll dress wouldn't budge her.

Patrolman P. W. Johnson, summoned by the family, has a way with blondes. He just banged a heavy fist on the door and roared:

"This is a policeman. You'd better come out."
Nelda Ann emerged.
But she exercised her women's right to the last word:
"Fank you Mr. Policeman for letting me out."

Refugees
Silver City, N. M.—Mrs. Chase McReynolds, marooned by the flooding Gila river, shared her tree haven for 12 hours with three rattlesnakes.

One of them attempted to get familiar, so she broke off a branch and knocked them into the river.

Back they crawled and kept their distance until Mrs. McReynolds was rescued by her husband.

Hat Auction Aids Blind
St. Joseph, Mo. (P)—The problem of what to do with last summer's straw hat has been solved by the St. Joseph Lions club. The members auctioned off their warm weather headgear and gave the money to aid the blind.

There Can Be No Curtailment of Dodge Quality
... No Substitute for Dodge Dependability

Being Shown and Demonstrated Now
With Extreme New Economy in Gas and Oil Consumption

TUNE IN MAJOR
BOWEN, C. B. S.,
THURSDAYS, 9 TO

The New and the Finest Dodge

EVERY MAN OR WOMAN who buys one of these new Dodges will get for his money the very finest car that Dodge has ever turned out. He will get it, of course, from a smaller total production, because the Government of the United States has first call upon Dodge factories and men. But, we repeat, every civilian buyer of Dodge motorcars will receive for his investment all of the traditional Dodge quality at higher levels of endurance, performance and economy than Dodge has ever supplied them before.

Power-Flow Engine—For All-Fluid Drive

He will get, literally, the climax value of twenty-seven years of fine car engineering. He will get the phenomenal success of Dodge All-Fluid Drive. He will get the new Power-Flow Engine, designed and adapted as the more powerful complement to the fluid smoothness of Dodge All-Fluid Drive. He will get a motorcar of lifetime lasting qualities, in which riding and driving have become almost the same thing—except that the driver gets the added joy of command.

Is This Asking Too Much?

People by the hundreds who have driven the new Dodge say almost the same thing. They say they could not, and would not, go back to the old way of driving. It is not asking too much, we believe, that you investigate these revolutionary Dodge qualities.

You should experience the ebb and flow of Dodge power, at any speed, in any traffic, with or without shifting gears as you may wish. You should measure its new economy against the old, and realize that Dodge, all by itself, has turned the corner into a new day of motorcar performance, long life, and Dependability.

Dependability—Forever the Watchword

It is unquestionably true that fewer cars will be built this coming year, according to your own defense requirements. But, above all, it is true that there can never occur any curtailment of Dodge motorcar quality—and no substitute, ever, for Dodge Dependability.

A new Dodge car is a basic investment for the years.

Maroon Gridders Will Play Mont Pleasant Away This Week; Middies Lose, 7 to 2

Weemsmen Apt to Show Better Than Experts Opined; Backfield Is Competent

While Coach Tommy Weems prepares his Kingston High School football aggregation for its second encounter of the season a number of other important instances have taken place in the Hudson Valley competition.

Fresh from their 13 to 6 victory over Amsterdam last Friday evening at municipal stadium, the Maroon and White gridders will stack up against the always troublesome Mont Pleasant club of Schenectady Saturday afternoon at the Dorpian City. The Maroon defeated Schenectady last year by 6 to 0.

The two DUSO League schools that saw action over the weekend, Newburgh and Middletown, divided glories. The Goldbacks managed to pull out a 6 to 0 victory over North Tarrytown Saturday afternoon. The highly-rated Middies were checked by Ossining 7 to 2 in a night attraction at Wilson Field in Middletown.

3,000 See Middies Lose

A turnout of 3,000 spectators watched the Blue and White gridders of Middletown go down to an unexpected defeat last week. Rated as the team to watch this year in DUSO League circles, the Middies were helpless once the heavier Ossining club started to move.

Middletown had a 2-0 lead going into the final period. However, Tony Esperito, the All-Westchester County back for Ossining last year, snaggled an 18-yard pass from Al Alston and lugged it to the two yard line. Two plays later Tony banged over for the only touchdown of the tussle and a victory for Ossining.

After the Weemsmen meet Mont Pleasant this week the club will remain idle until the first DUSO League clash with Middletown Friday evening, October 17, at municipal stadium under the floodlights. This game will go a long way in deciding the championship of this circuit.

Although Kingston's victory over Amsterdam was more or less lucky last Friday evening at the uptown ball park, the Maroon representatives displayed color. Besides winning its opener, the club disproved statements that it would be an easy pushover for other clubs.

Of course, the season has just started and the tough teams are still to be met. Clubs such as Middletown, Port Jervis, Newburgh and Poughkeepsie, aren't anything to take lightly. However, the local team has come out of its first clash in good style and should prove something of a dark-horse during the rest of the 1941 season.

Coach Weems uncovered a number of competent good backs in the Amsterdam opener. Fellows like Ed Luedtke, Johnny Rowland, Lou Salzman, Mark Kachigian and Flick all handled themselves notably and should even increase their value to the local school during the coming weeks.

Mont Pleasant is expected to have another juggernaut in readiness for the Maroon and White squad Saturday afternoon. This should be another good test for the Maroons. This will be their final test before taking on Middletown in the opening of the DUSO League schedule.

Pheasant Bag Up

More evidence of the ability of the pheasant to exist in densely populated areas comes from New York state, where the conservation department reports a 1938 "take" of 277,903 birds against a 1930 total of 174,987. This represents an increase of 59 per cent in eight years. The commission credits this increase to several factors, such as stepping up of game farm production by modern methods, more efficient game management practices, and increasing cooperation of sportsmen with the department as a result of its educational activities.

Restocking Program

While last year's restocking of quail, turkeys and deer exceeded that of any previous year in Virginia history, according to Carl H. Nolting, chairman of the Commission of Game and Inland Fisheries, the state's game distribution will be even greater during the current fiscal year. Over 3,200 Bobwhite quail are said to have already been released. About six thousand will be liberated this fall and several thousand more will be put out next spring. Turkeys, deer, rabbits and raccoon also figure prominently in the commission's program.

A deposit of bauxite is reported to have been recently discovered on the Isle of Pines, Cuba, the Department of Commerce says.

Graham Picks the Yanks

By DILLON GRAHAM
Sports Editor, AP Feature Service

That's the way this corner dopes out the World Series. The Yanks should triumph, but not in their customary four straight games. I expect the series to go at least six games.

The men of McCarthy possess too much power and too much pitching for their National League rivals. Besides they have the poise and confidence that comes from experience in these fall post-season engagements. From a defensive angle, too, the Yanks have an edge, with a tighter infield unit.

With Charley Keller in there to contribute his power punches, the Yanks might possibly win in four games. But, without him, and with several other regulars under par physically—I say five or six games.

St. Louis should afford the Yanks more trouble than Brooklyn. The Cards not only have power but they boast the fastest team in the majors. And their young, fast and tricky pitchers—Ernie White and Howie Pollet and Howard Krist—would give the New Yorkers trouble. The probable loss of Terry Moore and Enos Slaughter from daily action, though, would crimp the Cards' chances.

No team has more hustle and spirit than the Dodgers. Brooklyn has been getting the breaks all season and has won more than its share of extra inning contests. That luck might continue into the series. Wyatt definitely should bother the Yanks. And they might have difficulty with Kirby Higbe. But Brooklyn can't match the Yankee batting power.

And after their nerve-straining dogfight right down to the wire, either the Brooks or the Cards are in danger of a letdown.

It should be a good tight series with the Yanks just a little too tough for their rivals.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, Jr.

New York, Oct. 1 (The Special News Service) — The take-a-chance department, having batted 429 on week-end football selections and 1,000 on the fight, now unhesitatingly picks the Yankees to win the World Series in five games. The way we look at it is this: The Dodgers are better, man-for-man, at a couple of positions, but when you add them all up you get the Yanks for hitting, the Yanks for fielding and the Yanks with a pitching department that isn't very much worse than Brooklyn's, if any. The Bronx Bombers didn't have any 20-game winners like Wyatt and Higbe, but what chance did any of their guys have to win 20 with so many others looking for work? . . . And we don't look for the Bums to bust up any ball games with their slugging the way the Bombers have been doing for years. . . If you like hunches, Joe Louis wanted to talk about the Yanks instead of the fight in his dressing room right after he kayoed Nova, so off that, you might call it the Yanks in six. . . Ted Williams was around town, refusing to pick the Dodgers officially because he's an American Leagueer but hinting he wouldn't be displeased to see them beat the Yanks, who aren't exactly Ted's best pals. . . He didn't wait to see the series, but took a plane west to start an exhibition tour. The series rookies, Johnny Sturm and Pee-Wee Reese, won't be strangers when they step out on the field. . . They went against each other two years in the American Association playoffs.

Today's Guest Star

Jacobs Beachcombs

There seems to be more doing around fight headquarters after the battle, but before, even though some visitors from the mid-west kept right on arguing about football through it all. . . Ray Arcel was about the busiest guy of all, trying to explain what happened to Nova. . . Lou stayed in seclusion at his hotel and Arcel said Nova was peeved because he had wanted to go right out and slug with Louis and the board of strategy had over-ruled him. . . "I don't know whether he was right or not," Arcel admitted, "but if he'd gone out that way he might have been knocked out in the first round". . . Bill Daly was on hand saying that Pat Comiskey will be up in front soon because he's finally learned his lessons the tough way and is beginning to show improvement. . .

Band Leader Abe Lyman has signed up a heavyweight named William Ormby from Galveston, Texas, and turned him over to Izzy Kline to handle. . . Abe insists that Ormby should fight only where Lyman is booked to play because Abe wants to work in the kid's corner. . . When and if Joe Louis goes to the army, that $35,000 federal tax on Monday's gate will pay his 21 bucks per with a little left over for a few regiments. . . Dr. Walston Crocker Brown, inventor of the dynamic punch, says that's what Louis used on Nova.

Exports of merchandise for relief or charity totaled $21,883,753 in the January-June period, the Department of Commerce reported.

CAMERA STOPWATCH ON RIGHT THAT PUT NOVA ON FLOOR

Recorded by the magic eye camera, here is the terrific right-hand wallop that Joe Louis, heavyweight champion of the world, used to stun Lou Nova in the sixth round of their scheduled 15-round title bout at the Polo Grounds, New York. A few seconds after Nova rose gamely at the count of nine, Referee Arthur Donovan awarded the fight to Louis on a technical kayo.

6,000 Fans Line Up at Stadium At Morning Hour

63-Year-Old Lady Is One of First Arrivals by 5 A. M.; Rain Fails to Hurt Crowd

New York, Oct. 1 (AP)—Usually, the Yankee Stadium is a silent and deserted spot in the wee hours of the morning. But not today, with the first game of the World Series coming up, and especially with the Brooklyn Dodgers as one of the participants.

There were 6,000 fans (police estimates) strung out from the Stadium gates at 5 a. m. E.S.T., with more than eight hours to go before the "play ball" signal. More than that, a brisk splatter of rain—just the kind the weather man has predicted off and on throughout the day—failed to drive any of them to cover.

That gives you an idea of the dither New York has worked up over this baseball title war between the American League's Yankees and the National League's Brooklyn Dodgers.

Some fans huddled in blankets on the pavement and wood slumber, others played cards by wind-whipped candlelight, some just stood, but most of them argued. Prominent in all debate was the snoring Bronx cheer of Yankee fandom and the lip-and-tongue blast which Brooklynites recognize as the "razberry."

Dodger fans—and women at that—headed the bleacher line. Mrs. Elizabeth Albrecht, 43, and her niece, Peggy Albert, 18, won their places in a foot race when police gave the embryo crowd the signal to form in line at 7:30 last night.

Third place was held by Mrs. Carrie La Pange, 63, a widow who lives in Harlem, hard by the Stadium. Like Mrs. Albrecht and Miss Albert, she spoke too of Brooklyn's "bums" but not in the same accents. "Them bums," pronounced Mrs. La Pange, "ain't got a chance."

Champion Will Appear in Exhibitions; May Join Army; Nova Asks for Conn

Their business meeting in the ring over, Joe Louis and Lou Nova were free yesterday to count their change and plan for the future.

Monday night's heavyweight title fight in the Polo Grounds netted the champion $193,274 and Nova, $71,765 for his end of the purse as challenger.

The fight drew a $499,000 net, 40 per cent of which went to Louis and 15 per cent to Nova, who earned more in Monday's battle than any other of his career.

Official reports were that the fight grossed $583,821, paid by 56,549 fans. The federal tax amounted to $55,457.

Louis said that he planned on seeing the Yankees-Dodgers World Series games today and Thursday in New York, then leave for Detroit where he will attend a horse show.

Joe has a couple of dates with the army. He'll tour through the sixth Army Corps Area in Illinois and Michigan from October 8 to 15, boxing exhibitions at Fort Sheridan, the Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Camp Grant, Camp Custer and Chanute Field. The other date will be with the draft board of his home town, and if he passes the examination, he'll be inducted into the armed forces as a soldier.

Nova, nursing that cut over his right eye that took six stitches to close, remained incommunicado yesterday, under the care of a physician, but through his manager Ray Carlen made it known that he desired a match with Billy Conn, the Pittsburgh Kid. Lou will stay in New York for a week, then leave for his home in Alameda, Calif.

Joe Louis, still under contract to Mike Jacobs for a return bout with Billy Conn next June, is marking time until he receives definite word from his draft board. Should the champion be inducted into the army, Jacobs and Louis' managers hope to obtain a furlough for Joe to permit him to keep his engagement with Conn, whom he defeated in 13 rounds.

Told that he may be exempted from army duty on the new 28-felt, after the first round, I could tag him just as soon as a good opening came along."

Joe said he had a good opening in the fourth round when Nova missed that one. I was so surprised I forgot all about shooting over a punch when he left himself wide open. I never expected him to fight the way he did, boxing straight up that way. I thought he would come tearing at me, throwing punches from all angles. But he never did."

Nova and Manager Ray Carlen agreed that their pre-fight plan went haywire. Carlen said "We honestly expected to go along carefully for 10 rounds or so to see if Louis would tire. We knew Lou was prepared for 50 rounds. We thought Louis would grow weary. It was a fatal mistake." Carlen went on to say that he thought his boxer never saw the finishing blow. He added, "he felt it, though, plenty."

Stating that he was entirely satisfied with the receipts from the Louis-Nova go, Promoter Mike Jacobs sat back yesterday and said he was keenly disappointed in the showing of the challenger. Meanwhile, the boxing promoter said he would hold up authorization for the release of motion pictures of the fight.

Jackets Will Hold Drill at Stadium Tonight at 7:30

Coach Johnny Law Says Team Is Improving; Giving Attention to Blockers

The Kingston Yellow Jackets will hold another important practice session this evening at municipal stadium starting at 7:30 o'clock. Johnny Law, the new coach, will be on hand for the drill.

Sunday afternoon the Wasps traveled to Walkkill Prison and held a long workout under the watchful eye of their mentor, a former Notre Dame ace. Following the practice, Johnny remarked, "The Wasps are beginning to look pretty good. A few more extended drills and we should be ready for the season's opener."

After Law put his players through some contact work, he held a short scrimmage, breaking up the play from time to time showing different players just what to do. Law was busy with his flankmen, getting them set on defense and offense. The new pilot also gave the backfield members some instructions on proper blocking and running. Law was particularly interested in getting over the defensive action on the secondary.

"Many games are lost just by this defect," Law said. "A lot of clubs have sensational runners, kickers and passers. But still they lose. Before our training season is finished, I hope to have one of the best sets of blocking backs ever seen by local fans."

Those who attended Sunday's drill were Lou Straley, Ed Cheney, Had DeGraft, S. Barnes, Ed Esposito, Wenzel, Jimmy Tiano, Mac Tiano, W. Marone (his brother is the 1941 captain of Manhattan University); Sikorsky, Charlie Raible, Fred Hofbauer, Ten Brock, Jimmy Ashdown and Ed die Minasian.

Bomb Changes Luck

It was only a slight air raid according to London reports, but it changed the luck of Mrs. M. Wellburn. The bomb dropped near her house, crippled her husband and smashed the place badly. That was the last of a long series of misfortunes. Mrs. Wellburn's son had been killed in Crete. Further back she had to close her candy and tobacco shop. Before the war her daughter died suddenly. But within two weeks after the bomb fell, Mrs. Wellburn began to prosper. Other folk, bombed out of their homes, asked if she could take them in for the duration. And so, suddenly, with a maid to help, she found herself with a bigger income than she had ever before enjoyed.

The busiest thoroughfare in town

Lined with bright, exciting windows freshly stocked with today's news, the newspaper is the busiest thoroughfare in town... busier today than ever before.

In some windows you find news of the home town, the nation, and the rest of the world. In some you find entertainment, advice, interpretation. In others you find news of the goods and services offered by manufacturers and retailers.

Every day in the week, every week in the year, you and your family travel this busy street, looking for things that interest you... and finding them in both the news and advertising windows.

Practically everybody in every community walks along this thoroughfare of news and advertising every day... simply because the newspaper is indispensable to everybody everywhere. That's why the 37,000,000 families in the United States and Canada buy, and read, over 43,300,000 newspapers every weekday... over 33,000,000 newspapers every Sunday.

And because everybody is so intensely interested in the contents of the newspaper, it's easy to understand why advertisers, national and local, find newspaper space the most effective medium with which to tell their story and sell their goods.

Two Come From Retirement to Aid Defense

IVAR JUNGQUIST

Coming out of retirement at the nation's call for skilled men to aid in the national defense program, Ivar Jungquist, designer, and Herman Muller, toolmaker, both of Kingston, are now employed on the defense production program at the Electrol, Inc., plant on Grand street.

Mr. Jungquist and Mr. Muller are both busy at work in the test laboratories at the plant; Mr. Jungquist designing for testing the hydraulic equipment for airplanes, while Mr. Muller is turning out on the machines the parts that Mr. Jungquist is designing.

Although both men retired from active service some years ago the work they are now doing at the Electrol plant is said to be exceptionally good.

Mr. Jungquist for many years was in the employ of the Cornell Steamboat Co. at the shops on East Strand, where he supervised all of the repair work done on the tugboats and in the machine shops. He had been a draftsman for the Cornell Line for many years before he retired from active service.

In his earlier days Mr. Jungquist was noted for his many feats of strength, and for a number of years when he was a young man he delighted many audiences in Kingston and vicinity with his skill and strength in weight lifting.

One of his many feats was the lifting, with the aid of a harness, a steel beam that weighed over a ton.

HERMAN MULLER

Today Mr. Jungquist looks much younger than his age, and neither his eye nor his hand have lost their skill in drawing and designing intricate parts of machinery.

Mr. Muller for years was a skilled toolmaker in the employ of the Cornell Steamboat Co., and later he worked at the Electrol plant in the days when automobiles were built in the plant.

He recalls the days of the old firm of Wyckoff, Church & Partridge, who took over the plant in the days of before the first World War, and he worked there as a toolmaker on the parts of automobiles which were turned out at the plant.

Some 20 years ago John K. Lencke came to Kingston and took over the old auto plant and turned it into the Apollo Magneto plant which Mr. Lencke continued to operate until the plant was absorbed by the Electrol, Inc.

During the years that Mr. Lencke and the Apollo Magneto plant was operating Mr. Muller was employed there. He retired from active service some years ago.

In all Kingston there are few men who are more skilled in their trade than Mr. Jungquist and Mr. Muller. Mr. Jungquist began his present duties with the Electrol plant in December, 1940, while Mr. Muller assumed his duties in April of this year.

So skilled are both men that they were immediately assigned to the test laboratories of the Electrol plant. It is in this laboratory that the intricate parts for airplanes are designed and made and given thorough tests before actual operation in turning out the parts.

Crimea . . . A New Dunkirk?

Axis tank, bomber and parachute attacks on Russian Crimea may be the forerunner of another already familiar phrase of the European war, one witnessed at Dunkirk and Crete. Map shows railroad lines and principal cities in the southern war theatre, an area in which German communications assert that defense lines have been punctured and that mop-up operations have begun.

Boys Go Back Home

Robert Rion, 15, of 255 Montgomery street, Newburgh, and Louis Masten, 14, of 294 Montgomery street, that city, were picked up at noon on Washington avenue by Officer Wesley Cramer. The two boys had run away from their home. The Kingston police department got in touch with the Newburgh police and later that day the parents of the boys came to Kingston after the runaways.

Sally Rand to Go 'Western' at Altar

Fan Dancer, Who Made Woodstock Appearance, to Marry Cowboy

Cincinnati, Oct. 1 (P) — Sally Rand of the bubbles and fans is "going western," via matrimony, she disclosed today.

The dancer, currently filling an engagement in a nearby Kentucky nightclub, said she would marry Thurkel "Duke" Greenough, 36, broncho-buster and rodeo star of Red Lodge, Mont., "sometime around the first of the year."

Greenough stopped off here en route to New York where he is billed in a rodeo show next week at Madison Square Garden.

He met Miss Rand first in 1935, he said, the day he won a broncho busting contest at Cheyenne, Wyo. The fan-dancer asserted she had no intention of giving up her art.
